(6) Issues raised:

Without transcripts of the 18 court hearings it is impossible to argue about what was said, presented and what the judges' answers were. The lower court, despite accepted Affidavits of Indigency, refused to process the 4 notices of appeals, release the properly requested transcripts or prepare the dockets for the Appeals Court.

- "The appellant seeks to stay the judgment of the Probate and Family Court. A party seeking a stay in a civil case must demonstrate "(1) the likelihood of appellant's success on the merits; (2) the likelihood of irreparable harm to appellant if the court denies the stay; (3) the absence of substantial harm to other parties if the stay issues; and (4) the absence of harm to the public interest from granting the stay." The husband has failed to make any of these required showings"

- "The defendant has failed to demonstrate how a stay of the dismissal pending appeal, which would grant no affirmative relief to the defendant, would prevent irreparable harm (moving party must show, among other things, that they will likely suffer irreparable harm if stay is not granted)"
